Campus Dining Summer Reference Guide 2008

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Campus Dining & Shops! In order to make your summer at the University a little easier we've assembled information about our dining centers, snack bars, food courts and stores in this brochure.

Here are some FAQ's to help you along the way.

- What is a Dining Dollars account? Dining Dollars are tax free funds in a debit account. Dining Dollars can be used at all Campus Dining locations and in vending machines. (Tax exempt cert. required)
- What is Campus Cash? Campus Cash is a taxable debit account that you can open at the UB Card Office. Campus Cash can be used at the bookstore, UB Dining locations, many stores in the Commons, some off campus stores as well as the Elli, Campus Tees & Snacks. Campus Cash is accepted in all vending machines, Alumni Arena & Stadium concessions, as well as for many other services on campus.
- What is a Dining Center? This is where you eat breakfast and dinner if you have purchased a meal plan. Guests and non-resident students are welcome and can pay with cash.
- What's a Boxed lunch? When you just don't have time to stop and sit to eat, or are going on a field trip, you can pre-order a boxed lunch. The lunch contains; sandwich, chips or pretzels, fruit, cookies, and soda or bottled water.
