Instructions for International Undergraduate Students
Seeking Summer-Only Non-Degree Study on an F-1 Student Visa

1. Complete and submit (by mail, fax or scanned attachment) the “Undergraduate International Student Application Form for Non-Degree Summer Study” to the International Admissions Office.
2. Applications received without the $50 Application Fee cannot be processed.
3. International students enrolled in summer-only non-degree study must be registered full-time (defined as six credits in the student’s first Standard Summer Session).
4. Submit a copy or scanned attachment of your secondary school and/or university transcripts, school-leaving examinations and/or certificates.
5. English language proficiency must be sufficient so that you can successfully complete university classes. In the application form, answer the questions about your English proficiency and submit the required documentation. When you arrive at UB, the University may test your English language proficiency if you are having language problems and you may be required to register for an English class if your language proficiency is determined to be inadequate to successfully function in a university academic setting. You must submit or document one of the following:
   a. TOEFL score report (no minimum score for summer-only study).
   b. IELTS score report (no minimum score for summer-only study).
   c. SAT Critical Reading section score report.
   d. GCE O level or A level Results Slip with a passing grade in English.
   e. IB passing grade in English or Literature.
   f. AP passing grade in English or Literature.
   g. Any other recognized test that demonstrates English language proficiency (for example, STEP, CEFR, CET, PTE, TOEIC, GRE Verbal score, MELAB, Cambridge ESOL CPE and CAE, iTEP, etc.).
   h. Citizenship of a country where English is the official / legal language.
   i. Citizenship of a country where English is the medium of instruction (for example, some Caribbean countries, some African countries, India, Singapore, some European countries, and others); to be determined on a case-by-case basis by International Admissions as part of the application review process.
   j. Successful completion of an English language program.
   k. Successful completion of at least one term of academic study in a country where the official medium of instruction is English (regardless of citizenship or native language of the applicant).

   ➢ Applicants who cannot demonstrate English language proficiency as noted above cannot be admitted and will not be issued an I-20 or DS-2019.

6. If you require a Certificate of Visa Eligibility for a Student Visa (Form I-20 or DS-2019), complete the International Applicant Financial Form and submit it with the required financial documentation.
7. Complete the “Summer Class Registration Planner” in the application. You will be required to register for at least 6 credits (2 classes) in your first summer session. But please list four (4) classes (in rank order) in case your first two choices are not available. Visit http://registrar.buffalo.edu/schedules/index.php for the summer class schedule.
8. You will be required to attend a short international summer orientation program conducted by the Office of International Student and Scholar Services. An Orientation fee will be charged to your student account.
9. It will be your responsibility to contact Brian Waldrop, Senior Academic Advisor in the UB College of Arts and Sciences Student Advisement and Services, at: bwaldrop@buffalo.edu to confirm your enrollment and register for your classes.
10. Tuition eBills are e-mailed after summer class registration has occurred.
    • If you register before mid-June, your bill will be e-mailed to you in mid-June and will be due in mid-July.
    • If you register after mid-June, your bill will be e-mailed to you in mid-July and will be due at the end of August.
12. On-Campus Employment is not permitted.
13. UB does not provide airport pick up. Taxis, shuttles and public transportation are available. Information will be sent with the I-20 packet.

International Applicant Financial Form - Summer 2011

All international applicants must document their ability to meet all educational and living expenses for the entire period of their intended study before this university can issue a Certificate of Visa Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019). Read the following instructions carefully before completing and submitting this form.

Instructions

Part I: Answer questions 1–7 completely.

Part II: Indicate which summer session(s) you plan to attend, indicate the sources of your funding, the amounts available for each funding source, indicate the total amount available, and have the sponsors verify their support by signing this form. Include required supplementary documentation (see below).

Each applicant must document financial support equal to or greater than the amounts indicated below, depending on the number of registered credit hours.

(These figures are estimated costs and are subject to increase without notice.)

UB offers summer sessions of varying lengths. Check the Summer UB Academic Schedule (http://registrar.buffalo.edu/schedules/index.php) to select which session or combination of sessions for which you will register (international students must be registered for a minimum of 6 credits in their first summer session).

A typical 6-week program (with a minimum 6 credits) will cost approximately $6,275.

Two back-to-back 6-week programs (with a total of 12 credits) will cost approximately $12,500.

Not included on the I-20 / DS-2019 and that students/families should be prepared to budget: local and international transportation, ISSS orientation fee, ISSS activities, books and supplies, incidentals and personal allowances. We recommend budgeting approximately $1,000 per session for these out-of-pocket expenses.

Source of Funds | Required Documentation (All documents must be original.)
--- | ---
Personal/Family Savings: | Signatures of sponsors on this form. Bank verification in a separate statement of account documenting that funds are available in liquid assets; salary statements, accountant summaries and property cannot be used.
